

Well Dressing

September 2017

The Annunciation

Construction

From the 4th September to the 8th September 2017 the ladies of the Crooked Spire Flower Guild, along with friends and families, will commence the building and construction of their Well Dressing. This will take place in the porch of the church.

Blessing

Following the 9.30 Mass on Saturday the 9th September the Well Dressing will be blessed by the Reverend Patrick Coleman and will remain on show for one week, please come along we are sure you will enjoy the visit.

Donations

All donations made to the well dressing will go towards the day to day upkeep of the Crooked Spire.