

Chesterfield Parish Church Saint Mary & All Saints

When the Sun Goes Down

Sunset at the Vicarage (and the sun has been more than usually visible this summer) is a lengthy business, as there are few hills in that direction, so the light extends through the sky for a good hour or more before completely fading. (It tends to reach the yardarm several hours before that, mercifully ...)

At the Ending of the Day was the name of the broadcast of plainsong Compline on the Home Service on Sundays; it would be good if we could occasionally sing Compline here in that sublimely peaceful way.

Today Saint Paul tells the Ephesians not to allow the sun to go down on their wrath. This is among the things we all need to do at the end of each day: to seek God's peace and commit our lives to God for the coming night.

Strange though it may seem, what we do at the end of the day is probably the most important discipline of our lives. Leave behind the often unpleasant business of the day and commit your sleep to God to start anew when you wake.

Collect Prayer

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians     Eph 4.25-5.2

So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbours, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labour and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn             456

Listen to the gospel of Christ according to St John

Glory to you, O Lord     John 6.35, 41-51

Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'
Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' They were saying, 'Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?''

Jesus answered them, ‘Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, “And they shall all be taught by God.” Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
