He has done Everything Well

Jesus's ministry started with anger at the upstart young man acting better than his origin, yet it continues with a recognition that God is working in him. Yes, he heals and makes whole and speaks words that come from God, but this is summed up by saying that he has done everything well.

People have an instinctive sense that God is at work when wholeness and vision suddenly take hold in life, and they see that rare moment when 'it all comes together'.

Of course, as Jesus later comes to accomplish the work for which he was sent, he is subjected to the envy and smallmindedness of those who are supposed to be speaking for God.

Sometimes it is our instinct that tells us where God is at work, and the acid test has to be when we see that all things are being done well.

TRINITY XIV - CHORAL MASS

Introit: TBA

Setting: TBA

Collect Prayer

Almighty God, whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence: give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Book of Proverbs Prov 22.1-2,8-9,22-23

A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favour is better than silver or gold. The rich and the poor have this in common: the Lord is the maker of them all.

Whoever sows injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of anger will fail. Those who are generous are blessed, for they share their bread with the poor.

Do not rob the poor because they are poor, or crush the afflicted at the gate; for the Lord pleads their cause and despoils of life those who despoil them.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: TBA

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Mark

Glorify to you, O Lord

Mark 7.24-end

Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, 'Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs.' But she answered him, 'Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs.' Then he said to her, 'For saying that, you may go - the demon has left your daughter.' So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, ‘Ephphatha’, that is, ‘Be opened.’ And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, ‘He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
