Well Pleased?

In baptism we have been adopted as God's children.

God has the same right to expect to be pleased with us as God undoubtedly was with Jesus. No one who adopts in love expects less from an adopted child than from one born of nature.

We are born of God's nature and reborn of God's grace.

Is God pleased with the way we live out this divine calling? And if not, what will we do about it?

BAPTISM OF CHRIST - CHORAL MASS

Processional Hymn: AM 108 (See separate sheet)

Setting: Grayston Ives

Collect Prayer

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit: grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit, that we may be faithful to our calling as your adopted children; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles Acts 8.14-17

Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. The two went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit (for as yet the Spirit had not come upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus). Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: 57

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke

Glory to you, O Lord Luke 3.15-17, 21-22

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, 'I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.'

Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
