Using Our Gifts

Paul points out to the Christians at Corinth that God gives a variety of gifts which are brought to life by God's Spirit.

He tells them this because they have been arguing over each other's gifts and insights, each convinced that the other is wrong because they are different.

It would be wonderful to think that Paul would not have had to write the same thing to the Church of today, yet sadly we are just the same. We have serious problems embracing diversity, and those of us who are trying to see the work of God in all people are fighting an uphill battle.

The answer is prayer. Just as at Cana, Jesus can turn the water of our efforts into the miraculous wine of God's Spirit.

When we are at our most frustrated, let us invite Jesus through prayer to change things in a way we cannot.

EPIPHANY II - CHORAL MASS

Processional Hymn: AM 102 (See separate sheet)

Setting: Harris in F

Collect Prayer

Almighty God, in Christ you make all things new: transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives make known your heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from Paul's Letter to the Corinthians 1 Cor 12.1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says 'Let Jesus be cursed!' and no one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John

There was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'

Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
