Better Together

However we make sense of it, the Trinity has to be an example and a warning to us that we cannot 'go it alone'.

Wherever people allow themselves to descend into an 'us' and 'them' attitude, they live and work less effectively, and they are less human. The Trinity reminds us that this also means they are less like God.

The Church—and that means all of us—needs to take this very seriously. When we move, we move together. And it isn't my Church; it's not even our Church:
it's God's Church.

Since it is in God's nature to be three persons yet it is in God's perfection to be one God, so it should be our goal to be individual persons and communities yet moving and working as one—to the glory of the one God.

TRINITY SUNDAY - PROCESSION & CHORAL MASS

Processional Hymn: 146

Setting: Harris in F

Collect Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans Rom 5.1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: 360

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John Glory to you, O Lord John 16.12-15

Jesus said, 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
