Faithful and Honest

Jesus homes in on those people who think that life owes them a living and that they deserve everything good they can lay their hands on.

The fact is that going through life expecting to be rewarded is the best way of setting yourself up for disappointment. The secret—in Jesus' teaching, and it's also common sense—lies in putting the best we can into life, and being thankful for whatever comes back out.

And at the core of his teaching on this lie the two virtues of faithfulness and honesty: to be faithful to God, each other, and ourselves, and also to be honest with God, each other and ourselves.

Saint Paul urges his hearers to pray for kings and rulers, that we may live in all godly quietness. We have this week been honouring the example of faithfulness and honesty before God given to us over many years by Queen Elizabeth, and we pray for King Charles, that he too may be blessed to bring his own special gifts to the leadership of this nation.

And for us—if we live according to these standards we can hardly go wrong—unless of course we start looking for some sort of reward along the way!

TRINITY XIV - CHORAL MASS

Processional Hymn: 476
Setting: Harris in F

Collect Prayer

Almighty God, whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence: give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the First Letter of Paul to Timothy

1 Timothy 2.1-7

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all - this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: 360

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke

Glory to you, O Lord

Luke 16.1-13

Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, "What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer." Then the manager said to himself, "What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes." So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, "How much do you owe my master?" He answered, "A hundred jugs of olive oil." He said to him, "Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty." Then he asked another, "And how much do you owe?" He replied, "A hundred containers of wheat." He said to him, "Take your bill and make it eighty."

And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

"Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
