Being Grateful

Nine of the lepers healed by Jesus thanked God in the way the rules prescribed and went on their way. One returned with a grateful heart and thanked Jesus.

The nine thought that it was enough to do what they had to do. Being grateful had nothing to do with it—after all, that what God's there for isn't it?

It seems we aren't the only people to live in a take-it-and-run society.

Christians recognise the way God works in the world around us, yet we don't take God (or God's goodness) for granted.

Being grateful for even the smallest good thing is a basic part of following Jesus. If you're not—then now is a good time to start!

Collect Prayer

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy

2 Timothy 2.8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David - that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful - for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth. Amen.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: 407

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Luke

Glory to you, O Lord Luke 17.11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean.

Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan.

Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
