

Chesterfield Parish Church Saint Mary & All Saints

A New Covenant

When I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people to myself. This is the prophecy of the New Covenant that Jesus will establish for ever between all people and God who is Father of all.

In Holy Week we will be remembering the amazing love of God in Jesus, that brings about the unbelievable reality that we can be closer to God than we are to ourselves, and we will have the chance to follow Jesus on his road through suffering to triumph.

It costs little for us to take time together each day in Holy Week to remember and to celebrate. Don't miss the Holy Week services and addresses! They may take you somewhere you never imagined—at the very least they will remind all of us of the amazing things God has done, and still can work in us!

Please respect those who wish to prepare for Mass in quiet prayer; also those who wish to listen to the closing Organ Voluntary.

LENT V / PASSION SUNDAY - CHORAL MASS

Processional Hymn: 94

Setting: Wood in the Phrygian Mode

Collect Prayer

Most merciful God, who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world: grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross we may triumph in the power of his victory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews Hebrews 5.5-10

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, 'You are my Son, today I have begotten you'; as he says also in another place, 'You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.'

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: 393

Acclamation: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ,
King of eternal Glory!

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint John

Glory to you, O Lord

John 12.20-33

Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, 'Sir, we wish to see Jesus.' Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, 'The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour.'

'Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say - "Father, save me from this hour"? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.' Then a voice came from heaven, 'I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.' The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, 'An angel has spoken to him.' Jesus answered, 'This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgement of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.' He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
