

Chesterfield Parish Church Saint Mary & All Saints

Being a Priest

Hebrews makes a great deal of the High Priesthood of Jesus, because through his sacrifice on the cross Jesus has opened the way between this world and God.

This means that all who share in the life of Jesus through baptism are priests in one way or another. It also means that no one can just leave to those set aside and ordained the task of bringing people to God through Jesus.

The saints constantly remind us of this. Women and men of every sort, of every station in life, who have shown Christ's life to the world—these are the ones we honour as saints—and we should aspire to be the same.

Saints are not those who are perfect, but those who have done what they were baptised to do!

Please respect those who wish to prepare for Mass in quiet prayer; also those who wish to listen to the closing Organ Voluntary.

LAST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

SUNG MASS

Processional Hymn: 433

Setting: Merbecke

Collect Prayer

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews Heb 7.23-end

Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: 294

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Mark

Glory to you, O Lord Mark 10.46-end

They came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!'

Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
