

Chesterfield Parish Church Saint Mary & All Saints

Making the Memories Count

A lot of remembering goes on in November—from the many and various commemorations of the Saints to the remembrance of all the Faithful Departed.

Remembering gets us nowhere, however, unless we learn from it. Remembering the Saints gives us courage to carry on. Remembering the Holy Souls reminds us that we are in the same boat. And remembering the War Dead?

IF WE HAD ALL LEARNED THE LESSONS TAUGHT US BY THOSE WHO HAVE TRAGICALLY DIED IN SO MANY WARS, WE WOULD NOT STILL BE SEEING PICTURES OF MANGLED BODIES IN SO MANY PARTS OF THE WORLD. WE SHOULD HONOUR THOSE BRAVE PEOPLE WHO HAVE LAID THEIR LIVES DOWN FOR FREEDOM, BUT

FOR GOD'S SAKE LET'S TRY FINALLY TO LEARN THE LESSONS THAT BRING REAL PEACE AND GODLY RECONCILIATION.

Please respect those who wish to prepare for Mass in quiet prayer; also those who wish to listen to the closing Organ Voluntary.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

CHORAL MASS

Processional Hymn: 417

Setting: Stanford in C & F

Collect Prayer

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews Heb 9.24-end

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: 92

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Mark

Glory to you, O Lord

Mark 1.14-20

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.'

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake - for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.' And immediately they left their nets and followed him.

As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
