

Chesterfield Parish Church Saint Mary & All Saints

Better Together

However we make sense of it, the Trinity has to be an example and a warning to us that we cannot 'go it alone'.

Wherever people allow themselves to descend into an 'us' and 'them' attitude, they live and work less effectively, and they are less human. The Trinity reminds us that this also means they are less like God.

The Church—and that means all of us—needs to take this very seriously. When we move, we move together. And it isn't my Church; it's not even our Church: it's God's Church.

Since it is in God's nature to be three persons yet it is in God's perfection to be one God, so it should be our goal to be individual persons and communities yet moving and working as one—to the glory of the one God.

TRINITY SUNDAY

Processional Hymn: 192

Setting: Mass for Three Voices (Byrd)

Collect Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Book of Proverbs Proverbs 8.1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: 'To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live.

The LORD created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth - when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn: 190

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to John

Glory to you, O Lord

John 16.12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ
