PARISH CHURCH

Lent 2026

Preaching Christ Crucified

This year the Lent reflections at Evensong will offer brief meditations on themes from Saint Paul's teachings in 1 Corinthians, focusing (as he does) on Christ crucified.

Lent Reading

1 Corinthians Bible Study is a little book by Margaret Weston, inviting reflections on themes in Saint Paul's teaching. Copies are available from the church Gift Shop.

A rich variety of multimedia Lent resources can be found on the Church of England website, <https://www.churchofengland.org/faith-life/what-we-believe/lent-holy-week-and-easter/draw-near-life-giving-habits-lent>

Evensong Addresses

There will be a series of short meditations led by the Vicar at Evensong on the first five Sundays of Lent, considering themes from 1 Corinthians:

Sunday 22nd February: I am for Christ

Sunday 1st March: Neither sign nor wisdom

Sunday 8th March: One at the Lord's table

Sunday 15th March: And the greatest of these...

Sunday 22nd March: Meeting him

Stations of the Cross

Parishioners will lead Stations of the Cross devotions during Passion Week

1.00 p.m. on Monday 23rd March at Saint Leonard's

7.00 p.m. on Friday 27th March at the Parish Church

There will also be Stations of the Cross at 1.30 p.m. on Good Friday at the Parish Church.

Confessions

The clergy are very happy to hear confessions by appointment. Making a formal confession of sin in the presence of a priest has been a part of the life of the Church of England all the way through the Reformation and to the present day.

Please be assured that all clergy are bound to respect professional confidentiality regarding what is heard in the course of a formal confession.

Lenten Discipline

Many people like to observe Lent by giving something up or some other formal penance. Please consider how your discipline will serve your own spiritual growth or can be of service to others.

The traditional Fast Days in Lent are Ash Wednesday and each Friday. If you feel able to go without a meal on these days, you may wish to donate the money you would have spent to others who are in need.

Lent Music

In line with ancient tradition, this year the music during Lent will be more austere than usual, and we will be observing the rule that the organ will only be used to accompany singing, and not for voluntaries and other incidental liturgical music.

Holy Week and Easter

Weather permitting, the Procession of Palms will begin outside the Saints Parish Centre, moving across the churchyard into the church.

The Venerable Matthew Trick, who is acting as our archdeacon, will offer a series of meditations throughout Holy Week. These will take place at Choral Evensong on Palm Sunday (6.30 p.m.), and after Compline on the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week (7.30 p.m.).

On Maundy Thursday, the Mass of the Lord's Supper will include the Washing of Feet in commemoration of our Lord's commandment of love and service. The Watching in the Holy Cross Chapel will conclude with the reading from John's Gospel of the Last Discourse of Christ, starting at 11.00 p.m.

On Good Friday, there will be a Stations of the Cross devotion from 1.30 p.m., followed by the Liturgy at its traditional time of 3.00 p.m.

On Good Friday evening at 7.00 p.m. there will be an hour of sacred music.

The Easter Vigil will begin after sunset, at 8.00 p.m. on Holy Saturday. It should end by 10.00 p.m., and champagne and chocolate eggs will be on offer to round off the celebration!

Praying through Lent

Please find in the remainder of this booklet a form of prayer which you may wish to use daily during Lent.

Suitable Scripture readings could include the Mass readings of the day (find these online at <http://almanac.oremus.org> and clicking or pressing View), or you could read through the Book of Exodus chapter by chapter (40 chapters for 40 days of Lent), or chapter by chapter through Luke's Gospel, which is read at Sunday Mass this year, or through 1 Corinthians.

Opening Prayers

We stand before the throne of God
with countless crowds
from every nation and race, tribe and language.

Blessing and glory and wisdom, thanksgiving and honour, power and might be to our God for ever and ever.
Amen.

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession

Man born of woman has but a short time to live.
We have our fill of sorrow.
We blossom like a flower and wither away.
We slip away like a shadow and do not stay.

Holy God,
holy and strong,
holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

In the midst of life we are in death;
where can we turn for help?
Only to you, Lord,
who are justly angered by our sins.

Holy God,
holy and strong,
holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Shut not your ears to our prayers,
but spare us, O Lord.

Holy God,
holy and strong,
holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

You know the secrets of our hearts;
forgive us our sins.

Holy God,
holy and strong,
holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

Eternal and merciful judge,
both in life and when we come to die,
let us not fall away from you.

Holy God,
holy and mighty,
holy and merciful Saviour,
do not abandon us to the bitterness of eternal death.

A Scripture Reading – either from the Mass of the day, or from one of the suggested books of the Bible

A time of silent reflection – on the reading, on the issues and needs of the day, followed by:

Verses from Psalm 130

Out of the depths I have called to you, Lord.
Let your ears be open to hear my voice.

My hope is in God's word.

If you recorded all our sins
who could come before you?

My hope is in God's word.

There is forgiveness with you:
therefore you shall be feared.

My hope is in God's word.

My soul is longing for the Lord,
more than those who watch for daybreak.
My hope is in God's word.

O Israel, wait for the Lord,
for with the Lord there is mercy.
My hope is in God's word.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
My hope is in God's word.

Profession of Faith

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Intercession – you could name people and situations if you wish as part of these prayers

Blessed are you, eternal God,
to be praised and glorified for ever.

Hear us as we pray for your holy catholic Church:
make us all one, that the world may believe.

Grant that every member of the Church
may truly and humbly serve you:
that the life of Christ may be revealed in us.

Strengthen all who minister in Christ's name:
give them courage to proclaim your Gospel.

Inspire and lead those who hold authority in the nations of the world:
guide them in the ways of justice and peace.

Make us alive to the needs of our community:
help us to share each other's joys and burdens.

Look with kindness on our homes and families:
grant that your love may grow in our hearts.

Deepen our compassion for all who suffer from sickness,
grief or trouble:
in your presence may they find their strength.

We remember those who have died:
Father, into your hands we commend them.

We praise you for all your saints who have entered your eternal glory:
bring us all to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Our Father...

Lent Collect Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God,
you hate nothing that you have made and forgive the sins of all those who are penitent:
create and make in us new and contrite hearts that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness,
may receive from you, the God of all mercy,
perfect remission and forgiveness;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.
